

DRIVE AND ELECTRONICS REPAIR

INDUSTRIAL REPAIR SOLUTIONS THAT DECREASE YOUR DOWNTIME

Our Drive and Electronics repair can help you Decrease Downtime.

With over 15 years' experience repairing electronics and drives, a quality repair can reduce your costs. You can save 70% versus buying new by trusting the York Electronics Repair Team. If you don't have time to wait for a part, our lead times on repair are generally less than the OEM, averaging 1-5 days. We also provide precautionary preventive maintenance which includes checking all common failure points and replacing any weak parts. This will help your electronics last longer and make it less likely to experience a critical breakdown.

SERVO MOTOR REPAIR

INDUSTRIAL REPAIR SOLUTIONS THAT DECREASE YOUR DOWNTIME

With over 10,000 Servo Repairs, York gets your Machine Running

Your machine or robot goes through hundreds to thousands of cycles per hour, and your servo motors power all of them. At some point, due to the environments in which a servo motor lives, a breakdown will occur. Our servo motor repair team can help you to drastically reduce your machine's downtime.

York has over forty years of industrial motor repair experience—this includes close to four decades of DC servo motor repair and over two decades of AC servo and servo-spindle motor service. Therefore, whether it's an Allen Bradley, Baldor, Fanuc, Indramat, Siemens or another major motor brand, we have the expertise and pride in our workmanship to ensure you the best servo motor repair service available.
